Re: Ryan v. JPMorgan Chase & Co., 12-cv-4844 (VLB)

Dear Judge Briccetti:

We represent Defendants JPMorgan Chase & Co. and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. in the above-referenced matter and write to request a one-week extension of time to file the Reply in Support of Defendants' Motion to Dismiss, Or in the Alternative, To Stay Action and Compel Arbitration. Defendants also request an additional two pages, bringing the total pages for the Reply to twelve. Plaintiff consents to these requests.

Plaintiff's original deadline to respond to Defendants' Motion was September 4, and Defendants' Reply was due September 11, 2012. By letters dated August 24, 2012 and September 14, 2012, the Plaintiff's Response was extended to September 18, 2012 and then to September 25, 2012, and Defendants' Reply to October 9, 2012. (Dkt Nos. 7, 9).

Defendants seek an additional one week extension for their Reply, until October 16, 2012, due to pressing obligations in other cases that make it difficult to comply with the October 9 deadline. Defendants also seek two additional pages so that they may adequately address the issues raised by Plaintiff in her Response.

This request for extension does not affect any other deadlines.

If this request is acceptable to Your Honor, we have included a So Ordered line at the bottom.

*The application for a one-week extension of time to file a Reply is granted. Reply is due 10/16/12.
The application to file a Reply larger than 10 pages is denied.
So ordered:
WJB 10/4/12*
